

Paul D. Carangelo
PWS, CESM, REM

Paul D. Carangelo, PWS, CESM, REM, has lived and worked in the Texas Coastal Bend region since 1973. He has extensive multi disciplinary environmental and regulatory experience in port facilities management and marine development and construction. Since 1989, he has worked for the Port of Corpus Christi Authority as a Coastal Environmental Planner. Currently he has responsibility as co-Project Manager for the Corpus Christi Ship Channel - Channel Improvement Project, and is Project Manager for the La Quinta Container Terminal Project permit.

Registrations/Certifications

CESM = Certified Environmental Systems Manager #0114

REM = Registered Environmental Manager#03011

PWS = Professional Wetland Scientist