

Wesley L. Miller

Soil scientist with the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service. Since 1996 he has served as Technical Specialist for Wet Soils in Texas. From 1972 to 1996 he was a NRCS field soil scientist, Area Staff Soil Scientist in Victoria, Texas, and soil survey party leader for the Victoria and Jackson County soil surveys. Miller obtained a BS degree in Agronomy from Texas A&M University in 1966 and a MS degree in Soil Chemistry in 1969. Professional membership and certifications include Soil Science Society of America, Society of Wetland Scientists, American Registry of Certified Professionals in Agronomy, Crops and Soils as a Certified Soil Scientists, and is licensed as a Professional Geoscientist, Soil Science, by the State of Texas Board of Professional Geoscientists.

312 S. Main Street
Room 310, Federal Bldg.
Technical Specialist Wet Soils, Texas
Victoria, TX 77901
(361-575-2277)