

George S. Dunlop

Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army (Civil Works)

Mr. George S. Dunlop is dual-hatted as the Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army (Civil Works) and as the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army (Policy and Legislation).

As Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army (Civil Works), he assists the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Civil Works) in supervising the Army Civil Works program, including programs for conservation and development of the nation's water and wetland resources, flood control, navigation, and shore protection.

As Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army (Policy and Legislation), he serves as the principal policy and legislative advisor to the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Civil Works), responsible for executive direction of the Army Civil Works program. Mr. Dunlop is responsible for direction of the Civil Works legislative program, including authorizing legislation to support Civil Works projects and programs, and the development and articulation of the Army's policies affecting the Civil Works program.

He maintains extensive interface with the Executive Office of the President, Congress, Department of Defense, Department of the Army, other government departments, tribes, state agencies and other public and private parties interested in the Army Civil Works program.

Prior to joining the staff of the Assistant Secretary in November 2001, Mr. Dunlop was a business executive and entrepreneur involved in natural resources and information technology enterprises, serving as CEO for Century Communications, Inc., and Chairman, MicroBanx Systems, LLC.

Previously Mr. Dunlop served as President of the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture for Natural Resources and Environment in the Administration of President Ronald Reagan, and as Chief of Staff of the U.S. Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition and Forestry.

Mr. Dunlop is a graduate of Catawba College, Salisbury, North Carolina, and holds graduate degrees from Lehigh University and Duke University Institute for Policy Sciences. Mr. Dunlop served in the U.S. Marine Corps and the Marine Corps Reserve. Mr. Dunlop resides in Arlington, Virginia.
