

Pam Baker

Pam Baker is a fisheries biologist in the Oceans Program who works with coastal communities to improve fishery management and aquaculture practices in the Gulf of Mexico region. Fields of specialization include marine protected areas, reef fisheries and shrimp farming. (M.A., Marine Affairs, 1992, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, Rhode Island)