

John Lemmo

An attorney in the San Diego office of Foley & Lardner. Mr. Lemmo's areas of practice include environmental regulation and litigation, public agency law, and eminent domain. Mr. Lemmo represents numerous private property owners along coastal bluffs in the City of Solana Beach (California), and has defended owners and the City from lawsuits relating to coastal bluff protection. Prior to joining Foley & Lardner, Mr. Lemmo was an associate with Vorzimer, Masserman, Ecoff & Chapman in Beverly Hills, where he practiced real estate and environmental law; and a staff attorney for a clean water and coastal issues public interest group.

Mr. Lemmo has given numerous presentations on environmental matters to academic and professional organizations, including the U.S. EPA Brownfields National Conference, and has published many articles in the areas of regulatory compliance and environmental issues. He served as chair of the environmental committee the San Diego Unified Port District advisory group. He is a member of the State Bar of California and its Environmental Section, and has made many local television and radio appearances discussing environmental topics.

John Lemmo
Foley & Lardner
402 W. Broadway, 23rd Floor
San Diego, CA 92101
ph. (619) 234-6655
fx. (619) 234-3510.